Missions for November: Taking the Gospel to the World

Please uphold these people and ministries in prayer.

Read more about them – see the bulletin board in the foyer.

More complete information for all our missions is on the bulletin board in the library.

Sue Pfaff – Sue and her late husband, Jerry, spent many years translating the Bible into one of the languages, Nali, on Manus Island in Papua, New Guinea. One half of the New Testament has been published in Nali. Sue continues the work of translating the remaining half of the New Testament into the Nali language. Sue works shoulder to shoulder with the translation team on Manus Island and on New Guinea Island. Sue is currently in the US recovering from surgery. Please pray for her full recovery and ability to return to Manus Island.

Pablo & Sarah Cenepo-Torres - Pablo and Sarah have been in Trujillo, nine hours north of Lima, since 2002. They are involved in various ministries with a focus in the areas of Church Planting, Leadership Training, Discipleship, and Hospitality in cities, towns in the jungle and mountain villages. Pablo and Sarah are active with Hogar de Esperanza, an orphanage, and the Elliott School.

Joseph & Badine Parker – Working at Florence SC with Operation Mobilization, OM Ships International in bringing the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the ports of the world through medical, construction, literature, feeding, and friendship programs. Joe is currently leading fund-raising efforts and logistics endeavors to ensure that the staff are supported and needed material is available for Logos Hope and Doulos Hope to do their missions.

Contact Beth Dunkerton at bbdunks@msn.com or 410-812-1050 about the following:
