Missions for October: Ministries in Baltimore City

Please uphold these people and ministries in prayer.

Read more about them – See bulletin board in the foyer

More complete information for all missions is on bulletin board in the library.

Lindsay Goodman – serves with YoungLives for the city of Baltimore. YoungLives is an outreach to teen mothers and their children. This ministry offers one-on-one mentorships to the moms involved as well as free events, baby supplies, Bible studies, parenting classes, and summer camp trip opportunities.

Greater Baltimore Center for Pregnancy Concerns – Founded in 1980, the Greater Baltimore Center for Pregnancy Concerns (CPC) is a local, non-political, non-denominational Christian ministry of hope and life. Its mission is to educate and empower so that women have the freedom to embrace life. CPC provides its services from its facility on Howard Street in Baltimore City.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Baltimore – Since 1954, FCA has been challenging coaches and athletes on the professional, college, high school, junior high and youth levels to use the powerful platform of sport to reach every coach and every athlete with the transforming power of Jesus Christ. FCA focuses on serving local communities around the globe by engaging, equipping and empowering coaches and athletes to unite, inspire and change the world through the gospel.
